

Y11 LEARNNG RESOURCES

I am compiling a list of resources that our Yr 11 students can use as part of their revision. This information will be listed, subject by subject, on the school website, so that parents can view the types of things their children can be working with and revising in their own time.

Please fill in the box below and return it electronically by BREAK TIME ON THURSDAY 16th FEBRUARY so that I can get Scott to upload it before the holidays begin.

TEXT BOOKS STUDENTS CAN BE READING/WORKING THOUGH:

GCSE Revision Guide and GCSE Revision Workbook for AQA. These are available from Mrs Hill at a cost of £2.50 each and provide invaluable practice of GCSE vocabulary and listening and reading examination questions by topic.

LINKS TO WEBSITES THAT LIST COURSE STRUCTURE AND REMIIT OF THE QUESTIONS:

www.aqa.org.uk

This is the exam board website and past papers, listening sound files, past papers and mark schemes can be located there, along with the specification itself, which lists the course content and minimum grammar and vocabulary requirements.

www.memrise.com/course/52220

This lists all key vocabulary set out by the exam board and allows students to commit this vocabulary to their long term memory.

TV PROGRAMMES THEY CAN WATCH TO SUPPORT LEARNNG:

French Extra.

Extra is a Modern Languages series aimed primarily at 14-16 year olds, but it will also be of interest to older students who would like to improve their French.

Extra is an innovative idea from 4Learning: a familiar sitcom in a sophisticated setting which covers all the main programmes of study and grammatical areas needed for success at GCSE/SG. The scripts have been carefully written for the target audience, and for those who find language learning difficult, the American protagonist, Sam, is there to come to their rescue. His efforts to get to grips with the language provide the central dynamic for the language learning content of the series.

Extra can also be viewed through You Tube.

JOURNALS OR OTHER SOURCES OF INFORMATION STUDENTS CAN WORK THROUGH:

Revise GCSE French: Practice Papers. These are available from Mrs Hill at a cost of £3.99 and contain practice exam papers in listening and reading at both Foundation and Higher level. This resource is a perfect way of preparing for the final examinations.
