Science

GCSE Science exams start on May 15th – that's 22 school weeks away!!

Things you can plan to do from now:

1. Come to Science revision – EVERY Thursday in the Science zone 2.30-3.45 – EVERYONE welcome.
2. Start bringing your revision guide to lessons, start using it, answer all the questions in it. (on sale tonight if you haven't already bought one)
3. Youtube is your friend – watch podcasts, watch podcasts, watch podcasts!!! One a day will transform your grade and take about 4 minutes! Eg. Google: 'aerobic respiration KS4 you tube'
4. Use your 'required practicals' list and youtube them eg. Google: 'microscopy ks4 required practical you tube'
5. Prepare for your next set of PPEs during the week of 27th November – a 2 hour exam all about the required practicals – pick up your flyer from the Science area for a reminder
